Some important rules for this hunt:

- 1. This is meant to be fun and a hunt, so please no yelling out locations of hunt items in local. Stick to your IM's for helping out your friends or fellow hunters.
- 2. We have wonderful creators who have spent alot of time on these gifts for you, so please be respectful and do NOT bother them on where the item is or hassle them in any way. Find help in group chat or check out the hintlist.
- 3. In group chat, do not blurt out where things are located. Helping each other is some of the fun of these hunts, so remember to give out hints only in chat.
- 4. Do not give out cheat sheets. Creators will change the location of the hunt items when they learn of them and for some creators, they do enjoy changing the locations anyways, so the cheat sheets do tend to be useless.
- 5. Remember to always give yourself more than enough time to rezz. Some places can take up to a few minutes before you can see clearly enough to really look for the item.
- 6. When hunting, please be respectful to each other, we want everyone to enjoy themselves on this hunt.
- 7. Do not just walk into a shop, glance and then ask for help immediately, this is a hunt so please put in an effort to find the object.
- 8. This is the website where pictures and hints will be posted: <http://www.firebeach.org/>

This hunt will have a 1L$ charge of the huntitems. Remember, this is a hunt for those who love a little challenge! Lets have some fun! Click here for the hintlist!
